HALHIMERS

The Silk

Section

Offers These Seven Great

Values for To-day's

Selling

22-inch Pure Silk Crepe de Chine, light blue, violet, Copen-

Chine, light blue, though hagen, navy and ivory 49c quality, yard DUC Remnants and odds and ends of this season's Silks, in a wide range of colorings, in plain and fancy weaves; hundreds of yards to choose from; worth up to 25c

75c yard; sale price..... 25c
35-inch Black Shanghai Duck, the most popular all-silk $1.00 for summer wear, yard.

18-inch Wash Habutai, in 25

24-inch Poplins, navy, wistarla,

Copenhagen, blown, violet, light blue, old rose 49c Copenhagen, brown, green, gray, and white; only, yard.... 490 27-inch Armure Brocade Crepe;

old rose, light blue, maize, Copenhagen, brown, navy, pink 39c and white; special, yard...

FOUR RELIGIOUS

EVENTS SCHEDULED

Next Few Months Will Be Time

of Activity in Danville

Churches.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, August 24.-During the scheduled to take place here. First of all will come the revival meeting, which will be held by Gypsy Smith,

the noted evangelist, from September

Virginia will meet here, with many of the State's leading ministers in at-tendance. In the middle of November the Virginia Conference of the Metho-delegates here. In December the State Laymen's Missionary Conference

Ready for the Crop.

With ten fully equipped tobacco warehouses in operation, Danville is prepared to take care of what is ex-pected to be one of the largest and best crops seen in the bright belt for many years. The market opened here farmers are in the middle of cutting and curing their product. Farmers re-port from surrounding counties that the crop this year is splendid. They will assemble here.

neat stripes; green, blue, brown, white; yard 35c

40-inch Marquisette and Grenadine Pure Silk, black, navy, pur-ple, King's blue, brown red; regular $1.00 50c

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. James I. Pritchett, Jr., and her small son, of Danville, are guests of Mrs. Pritchett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Drake, at 1296 Floyd Avenue, for the next two weeks. Miss Vir-ginia Robinson, of Danville, arrived on Saturday for a visit of several weeks to Miss Alton Drake. Engagement of Interest.

An engagement of much interest to Richmond society, which has been re-cently announced, is that of Miss Ida Maria Lawson, daughter of Mr. and her father, C. F. Chelf. Mrs. William Elisha Lawson, of Hampton, and Hugh Philbin, of New York. The wedding is to be celebrated some crystal bowl, and the birthday cake, with its three candles, occupied the place of honor at the head. Little Miss Herold served the punch, and her sister, Helen, cut the cake. There were fourteen children present, and the favors distributed by means of a fishing contest, were dolls and bubble Helen and Virginia Herold, Herold, of New York; Effic Riddick, Katherine Woodfield, Dorothy and Margaret Sorg, Mary Knightly, Josephine Stumpf, Sallie Wray, Willie Wray, ali of Richmond: Helen Duvall, of Portsmouth, and Lillie Huff, of Waynesbore.

The chaperons were Mrs. C. R. Sub-lett, Mrs. C. B. Riddick, Mrs. J. T. Tay-ler, and Mrs. J. E. Sorg, of this city.

solemnized at the home of Mrs. daughter, Miss Helen Hamilton Grigg, became the bride of Gary Strother Fisher, of Huntington, W. Va. The Dr. John Hamilton Hansford. George P. Bentley. ary Church, at Montgomery, W. An imprevised altar was erected

The bride is the daughter of the late visiting friends in Hanover, has return-Robert Grigg, and is a native of Ka-ed to her home here. the late Charles Fisher, was formerly of hydrangeas, lilles, roses, ferns and smilax, and after the ceremony a wed-

Richmond Saturday for Culpeper

Dunlop Flour

The Dunlop Mills Richmond Va.

Hopkins Furniture Co.

7 West Broad St.

Cash or Credit.

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed

Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

Sydnor & Hundley

कारियां विश्वविद्यां करिय

PURITY YOU CREAM

Same Quality Every Day.

Suits now on display.

$5 and $6 Silk $3.98 KIMONOS, KIMONOS,

Norfolk styles of Silk Kimonos, pretty flower designs, trimmed with wide satin border of harmonizing where she will spend ten days with Fall Weddings.

Mrs. J. R. Crawford and her children, who have been at the Greenwood House, Greenwood, left several days ago for firmly believe that the Valley is both the control of these activities of these activities of these activities of the control of these activities of the control of the control of these activities of the control of these activities of the control of these activities of these activities of these activities of these activities of the control of these activities of the control of the contr

Miss Julia Harris, of 1800 Boston Avenue, Oak Grove, left Saturday for a two weeks' visit to Summer Rest.

Mrs. A. V. Seal, after spending more than two months with relatives in Memphis, Tenn.; Corinth, Miss., and Salisbury, N. C., has returned to the

Mrs. M. P. Pully and her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Marks, of Cowardin Ave-nue, are visiting friends and relatives ir Pittsburgh, Pa., for two weeks,

Mrs. R. H. Tiller and her children of Chester, Chesterfield County, and is now located in Huntington, W. Va., relatives in King William County.

C. & O. REPORTED IN RAILROAD DEAL

May Purchase Line Between Harrisonburg and Lexington From the B. & O.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., August 24.—That he Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company will in the near future purchase outright from the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company the strip of road between Harrisonburg and Lexington and operate a direct passenger and freight The wedding is to be celebrated some time in October, and a number of Richmord people will go to Hampton to attend the ceremony. Miss Lawson is a frequent visitor to Richmord and Misses Sadie and Gladys Neale.

At Skyland.

Last week was one of unusual galety at Skyland, in the Blue Ridge. One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the concert Thursday evening, rendered by the Camp Orchestra, with vocal selections by Miss Juliet wedding to Harry C. Hayes, of this city. The ceremony will be performed at St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., at 9 in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones, of Williamsburg, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Grace Virginia, to James Patterson Alexander, of Springfield, Mass., the wedding to take place some time this fall.

Guests of Mr. Reed.

Professor and Mrs. William R. Reed,

Professor and Mrs. William R. Reed, Wednesday, September 3, is the date service between Lynchburg and Harof the most enjoyable events of the week was the concert Thursday evening, rendered by the Camp Orchestra, with vocal selections by Miss Juliet Anderson, of Richmond.

At the Leach Cottage the following Richmond party was delightfully entertained: Mrs Richard M. Anderson, Miss Juliet Anderson, Virginius Berry, Laurence Mauck, Mrs. Frank Berry, and Miss Nina Leedy, of Luray, and Miss Nina Leedy, of Luray.

Among other Richmond people at Skyland during the week were Miss Ella Binford, Miss Vanden and Miss Taylor.

On Motor Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E., C. Pelouze, Miss Lucille Pelouze, Herry L Pelouze, and Miss Alice Crutchfield, of this city, are on quite an extended automobile of the Virginia mountains. Mr. Miss Anne Holman, of Norfolk, entertained from Harrisonburg to take place some time this fall.

Guests of Mr. Reed, at his home, 2003 Fairmount Avenue, Professor Reed has long been recognized as a stumbling block. Its owners have allowing proposed improvements that it is a losing proposed improvements that have been unged by Harrisonburg and other Valley towns. Now if the B. & O. refuses to sell to the C. & O., people in this Saturday to spend some time in Philadelphia, and will also visit Atlantic City defore returning to her home here. Mrs. C. W. Toombs, who has been visiting the view weeks, will accompany her daughter to Atlantic City

Laurence Mauck, Mrs. Frank Berry, and Miss Alice Crutchfield, of this city, for the past two weeks, will accompany her daughter to Atlantic City

Miss Anne Holman, of Norfolk, enterting the remaining to the remaining to the remaining to the room here a view of the Allendary of th

Miss Alice Crutchfield, of this city, are on quite an extended automobile tour of the Virginia mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Pelouze and their party are at present registered at the Alleghany Inn, at Goshen.

Miss Anne Holman, of Norfolk, entertained delightfully at a launch party singular from the Greenwood House, Greenwood, was the scene of a charming affair on Thursday, the occasion being the birthday fete of little Miss Virginia Herold, of New Rochelle, N. who is spending the summer with the grandmother, Mrs. C. R. Sublett, of Petersburg, at that resort. A color scheme of pink and white was verseffectively carried out, and the table was decorated with a large centre
Miss Anne Holman, of Norfolk, entertained delightfully at a launch party size that the B. & O. is getting ready to cut a road through the Alleghanies from Harrisonburg to some point in West Virginia. Needless to say, this would revolutionize Valley conditions and maybe this is why the B. & O. is willing to let the C. & O. have the strip to Lexington.

W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire of New York City, who owns the Chesapeake Western Road, which runs through deep the Carter, of Norfolk; Messra. Roy Martin, A. C. Dodson, H. E. Robertson, Leonard Rock, Leslie Gayle, L. A. Holman and C. A. Saunders. Mr. and Mrs.

Greenwood was the scene of a charmlog affair on Thursday, the occasion being the birthday fete of little Miss to clay the B. & O. is willing to let the C. & O. have the strip to Lexington.

W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire of New York City, who owns the Chesapeake Western Road, which runs through Rockingham and parts of Augusta connecting with the Norfolk and Western at Elkton, is watching the local situation. Mr. Stokes has visited that Stokes is thinking of extending the local situation. Mrs. Stokes is thinking of extending the local situation and the rumor persists that the B. & O. In and the rumor persists that the Scome point in West Virginia. Herold, of Nor Rockingham and parts of Autransfer of Norfolk, Messra. Roy Marti Mrs. Robert Bosher, who has been spending some time in the Adirondacks and New York City, has returned to Miss Doris Jones spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Louise Michaux, at "Michaux Grant," Powhatan County. Alexander Randall Hagner left town Saturday for a visit to Ocean City. N. J.

Selling the little C. In the meantime Greene County is bending every energy to get a rail-road of some description from some-body. Several mass-meetings have been held at Standardsville, the county seat, and with several northern capitalists present, a large subscription was raised to such the cause. said that Stokes would not object to selling the little C. W. to the C. & O. In the meantime Greene County is to push the cause.

With all of these activities and rumors on all sides, Harrisonburgers to have some big developments before

STUART ADDRESSES VETERANS.

Is Orator at Confederate Reunion Held

Near New Market.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., August 24.—Henry,
Stuart, Democratic nominee for Governor of Virginia, was the speaker Fri-day at the Confederate reunion held a mile north of New Market, Shenandoah County, Mr. Stuart was introduced by former Senator George B. Keezell, of Harrisonburg, as the "next Governor." R. H. Tiller is somewhat indisposed this home, 2008 Fairmount Avenue. Mr. Stuart praised the valorous deeds of the Southern soldiers, upheld the constitutional rights of secession and declared that when the Chief Justice of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dunford have returned to Richmond, after spending two weeks at the beach.

Mrs. Palmer Parker, who has been Mrs. Palmer Parker, who has been declared that when the Chief Justice of the United States, a Confederate vetter. Confederate vetters and who was made. About 4,000 stalk-cured tobacco will assume any search for the season on the 15th instant, and every day since its opening good-sized from the States, a Confederate vetters, and which is the season on the 15th instant, and the season on the 15th instant, and every day since its opening good-sized from the States, a Confederate vetters. were present from all parts of thing like large proportions for the next two weeks, as nearly all of the pow located in Huntington, W. Va., being connected with the Miller Supply Company. He is a brother of Edward Piener, formerly of this city, but now of New Jersey.

HORNE NOT RESPONSIBLE.

Absolutely Nothing to Do With Manage-ment of Yadkin Valley Bunk.

Married in Michigan.

News has been received in Richmond of the marriage of Miss Alice Enright, daughter of the late Major M. J. Enright. to S. J. Swarzwalder, of Columbus, Obio. the ceremony having taken place in Jackson, Mich. After an extended wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Swarzwalder will be at home in Columbus, Obio.

Luncheon Friday.

Mrs. E. Hawes Lipscomb entertained at luncheon at the Jefferson Hotel on Friday in honor of Mrs. Virginal Rollins and her daughter, Miss Rollins and her daughter went will discover in the Miss Rollins and her daughter first day in honey and Then Shoots at His Victim.

Special to The Time Jis And Shang. Here, a large candy manufacturer and successful business man, who recently moved the Horn his city to Lynchburg by Winkton-Salem, N. C. August 24–R. B. Here, a large candy manufacturer and successful business man, who recently moved the horn freest bloomer from this city to Lynchburg by Winkton-Salem, N. C. August 24–R. B. Here, a large candy manufacturer and successful business man, who recently moved with the bloom is city function. The miss of the County grand jury, charging him with being implicated in the was attained in the reveal as attained i

SOME NEWSPAPER "CONTESTS" AND THE BOOKLOVERS' GAME

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND If the Booklovers' Contest Game ere a subscription-soliciting affair. hose entering it now would find that old contestants had a big advantage

J.B. Mosby & Co. But the Booklovers' Contest has no idea of soliciting or canvassing or Advance styles in new Fall all in a bunch, instead of having had to save them one by one.

This is the way to get them:
Get a contest catalogue. With each catalogue The Times-Dispatch gives away free seven certificates, which are exchangeable for the first thirty-five pictures. Right to-day you can exchange the first six certificates for the thirty pictures which have appeared thus far. The catalogue costs 35 cents, or 40 cents by mail. It is a list of 5,000 book titles, arranged in alphabetical order.

And the seventy-seven book titles represented by the seventy-seven pictures were selected from this cata-represented by the seventy-seven pictures were selected from this catalogue.

In other words, all the seventy-seven correct titles are in the catalogue. When you buy a catalogue, seven titles, and, in addition, you get seven certificates, redeemable free for the first thirty-five pictures.

Get a catalogue and the certificates, That is the way to start in this contest game to-day, on exactly the same plane, with exactly the same chance to win, as though you had started with the appearance of picture No. 1.

Start to-day.

Within a short time the names of the prominent men who will act as judges of the contest will be announced. They have undertaken the task of giving their personal supervision to the contest, to see that it is conducted in every way to the satisfaction of contestants.

Meanwhile get that catalogue, with

You Can Always Enter a Game, With it the back pictures free, and start solving your joyful way toward that If the Booklovers' Contest Game $300 in cash, first award.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china

BIRTHDAY RINGS,

BRACELETS, CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

MADE FROM GOLD MEDAL FLOUR.

Had Narrow Escape. William Steel, a white man, had a narrow escape from death early this morning, when it is alleged, in an intoxicated condition, he fell in the middle of the concrete bridge and went to sleep, only to be awakened shortly afterwards to find himself staring at the bottom of an automobile, which had literally run over him. Edward Williams, the chauffeur of the car, failed to see the man until he was upon him, and, clamping down his brakes, he stopped over the body. Fortunately, the man fell lengthwise with the car, and so enabled the machine's wheels to run on either side of his William Steel, a white man, had a wheels to run on either side of his body, otherwise he would have assured-ly been killed.

gave him thirty days in jail.

The driver of the car, jumping from The driver of the car, jumping from his seat, dragged the man from be-neath the car yery oily and dirty, but otherwise unhurt. He then speeded back to the city and informed the back to the city and informed the police, who went with him back to the spot, put the man in the tonneau and brought him to the courthouse. He was placed in jail charged with drunkenness, and will be given a hearing to morrow. ing to-morrow.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chatham, Va., August 24.—The Chatham School Improvement League was the home of Dr. J. D. ham School Improvement League was organized at the home of Dr. J. D. Jones, in South Chatham, on Friday night, with officers as follows: president, Dr. J. D. Jones; vice-president, Mrs. J. I. Overbey; secretary-treasurer, G. E. Thompson, membership committee, Mrs. W. T. Canada, Mrs. J. W. Whitehead, Jr., and Mrs. G. E. Thompson. The objects of the league will be to co-operate and assist the school authorities in improving the conditions of the Chatham High School. On Thursday night next a meeting of the league will be held in the courthouse, at which time it is hoped that every high school patron will be present and enlist in this work. At the meeting Thursday night definite steps will be taken and a course mapped out to be pursued in the future.

TO SAVE TRIBES OF NORTHERN SIBERIA

sion to Devise Means of Stopping Extermination.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. ICHOLAS II. has just appointed an imperial commission for the purpose of devising means of arresting the rapid extermination of victim is completely ruined. the native tribes of Northern Siberia, the native tribes of Northern Siberia, Among the other complainants are which, at the present rate, bid fair to a prominent and well-to-do couple of become extinct ere many years have first of all, the terrible plague known as the Siberian pest, which not only wiped out entire clans, but which also the late King Leopold II., she is now destroyed hundreds of thousands of subject to the jurisdiction of the orreindeer, which are indispensable to them as a means of transportation and that the German government will follow of food.

Then, too, the government officials were trained to believe that the extinction of the native tribes of North-ern Siberia would benefit the empire, and should be encouraged rather than retarded. It may be remembered that formerly similar views prevailed in North America with regard to the red

Emperor Nicholas, however, has become alive to the evil of this policy, on moral, but more especially on political and economic grounds. For, by reason of its climatic conditions, the whole of Northern Siberia is practically uncolonizable by Russians from Europe. The only people who can be Europe. The only people who can be utilized to develop its latent resources are precisely these native tribes, and the sole means of transport for many years to come will be the reindeer, which the tribes in question are alone able to understand and to raise. By permitting the tribes to become extinct, the entire northern portion of Siberia, with its mineral riches, etc., is condemned to unproductive idleness.

The aim of the commission The aim of the commission now appointed by the Czar is to come to the assistance of the tribes in their desassistance of the tribes in their destitution and misery, to provide them with money, supplies, education and with medical care for both man and beast, so that they may be able to repair the ravages of the Siberian which she was confined. After that, her father Legald II of Beigum, and plague among their herds of reindeer, and themselves increase in numbers, in vigor, and in intelligence. religious activity in Danville, four of the greatest events of the year being animals, especially the sable, and then spread to the reindeer, and to human beings, just in the same way that the rats in India spread the bubonic plague

14 to 24, and which will doubtless attract State-wide attention. In October the Presbyterian Synod of she has allowed herself to become incriminated in the charges of forgery and fraud which have just been lodged by several complainants against the dist Episcopal Church, South, will hold an eight-day series of meetings, with one or more of the bishops and many delegates here. In December the spite all reports to the contrary, continues to form part of her entourage, and with whom she was until last week at Baden Baden. She is included in the accusations in all the com-

One of the complainants has been

Every Good Grocer knows this BIG box and will gladly see that you get it. Tell him you want

Washington CRISPS

10c. The BIG Package of Tousted Corn Flakes - 10c.

Gas Ranges Reduced 10% When the farmer emerged from the negro's house with a suspicious package in his hand, the officer stepped forward, questioned the farmer and obtained the information that the negro had just sold him the liquor.

Both men were taken to the courthouse, not very far distant, and the Mayor, who was in his office at the time, after hearing that Stanley was willing to confess, fined him $50 and gave him thirty days in jail. 4Th AND BROAD STS. PROMTURE ROTHERT & CO. RICHMOND-VA.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'S?

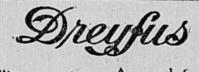

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.25. ALBERT STEIN

Corner 5th and Broad

DETROIT GAS RANGES. LASKA REFRIGERATORS. OLD HICKORY PUNCTURE, SOLD ONLY BY

JURGENS

'Specialists in Apparel for Women.

Broad at Second.

Nicholas II. Appoints Commission to Devise Means of swindled, according to the charges lodged with the criminal authorities of Berlin and of Vienna, out of over a million marks in money, as well as of a quantity of stocks and bonds, which he was induced to relinquish to them for use as collateral, by means of a forged autograph letter of the Emperor of Austria, and by forged acceptances. In fact, this particular the city of Hamburg.

foreign reigning houses had been withdrawn from Louise of Belgium, al-though she is the eldest daughter of dinary criminal courts in the dual low the example of that of Austria-Hungary in the matter. Her only means of escape from penal

Her only means of escape from penal servitude would be incarceration once more in an asylum for the insane, as not accountable for her actions. It may be remembered that when she was first subjected to restraint as a lunatic, some fifteen years ago, it was lunated barrels of Irish potations and 4,000 baskets of onlons were shipped from Onley Station during the season.

Mrs. Dickerson, mother of Mrs. Edgar Fletcher, of Accomac, was knocked down by an automobile while crossing the street in Salisbury, Md. Her arm lunatic, some fifteen years ago, it was in order to clear her of the criminal responsibility of analogous charges of forgery and fraud, Captain Matachich, tenced to military degradation, and to a term of penal servitude, for the same offense, which included the obtaining of large sums of money from loan mongers by means of acceptances to which the names of Crown Prin cess Stephanie and of other royal and imperial relatives of Princess Louise had been forged.

Matachich was the stepson of the late Count Oscar Kegievitch, one of would undoubtedly have bequeathed his fortune to Matachich, had it not been for the latter's disgrace, which caused him to repudiate, disown and to escape from the sanatorium in which she was confined. After that, her father, Leopold II. of Belgium, and a number of other of her relatives, offered to effect a compromise with her creditors, to restore her to their regard and affection, to accord to her once more the honors and prerogatives of her birth, and to furnish her with a rough bousehold and affection. Siberian plague, as my readers will creditors, to restore her to their re-doubtless recall, was a pest which gard and affection to accord to he a royal household and suitable maintenance in Belgium, if she would only dismiss her unsavory entourage, first and foremost of the latter being ex-Her aunt, the late Countess of Flanders (mether of King Albert of Belgium), her sister, Princess Clementine, and King Albert himself, plead was impossible for them to do anything for her, or indeed to hold any intercourse her, as long as she persisted in living openly with Matachich.

But she turned a deaf ear to all their solicitations, and now finds herself once more in the tolls of the law. Her relatives realize that if even now were to secure the withdrawal by paying to the persons whom she and the ex-captain have victimized, the huge sums out of which they have been swindled, they would have no assurance that she would not at once embark upon fresh frauds. In fact, there is no prospect of the ending of any of these scandals in connection with the woman, who has undoubted-ly lost all moral sense and is demented, until she has been locked up in a lunatic asylum, and he, Matachich, placed behind the bars of a peniten-burg, who holds the rank of general in the Austrian army. It was while acting in this capacity that he com-promised the princess to such an ex-tent that after Emperor Francis Joseph had remonstrated with her in vain, he barred her from his court. Then she eloped from Vienna to the Riviera which Matachich, who returned to fight a duel at Vienna with Prince Philip, wounding the latter seriously enough to arrest the combat. Stranded in the Riviera for lack of money, the couple then engaged in those frauds which led to their arrest. (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

NEWS OF EASTERN SHORE

Onancock, Va., August 24.—Newell, the youngest son of Captain Jack Chandler, was riding his wheel. On reaching the steamboat shaft he was going so rapidly that he was unable to stop himself and went overboard. Through the efforts of Rev. J. W. Foyle, who was on the wharf, and George McMath, of Onley, and Mr. Ironmonger, of Norfolk, who drove up in a machine, he was rescued as he was going down for the last time. He was unconscious when taken from the water, but was resuscitated after being worked on by Dr. George L. Fosque for half an hour.

hour.

Troy J. Hoover, of North Carolina, who will be principal of the Onancock High School for the coming session, has arrived. He will spend the next three weeks in making the acquaintance of pupils and patrons. The school board will give a reception in his honor Tuesday evening.

The Central Agricultural Fair (colored), held at Tasley for four days last week, was poorly attended, except on Thursday, when it is estimated that 6,000 negroes were present. The exhibits were unusually good, and two hibits were unusually good, and two race horses were brought down from Baltimore. Several negroes had automobiles sent down from Baltimore. A sum was charged for a ride around the race track. A thriving business was done. Twenty negroes were taken to jail during the fair—fourteen on Thurs-

The Keller Association of Grangers will hold its annual meet Tuesday Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The racing is local, all the horses being from the Eastern Shore. It is really "home-coming week" for the Eastern Shore men, who have located in different sections of the States. Wednesday, education day, generally attracts the largest crowd.

Sewell Taylor, of Assowaman, has announced that he is a candidate for the secretaryship to the State Board of Fisheries
Mrs. Levin R. Lewis died suddenly

Mrs. Levin R. Lewis died suddenly Friday while visiting the home of her brother, John W. Shrieves, of Onancock. She was seventy-three years old Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dickersen, pastor of Ayres Methodist Episcopal Church, and interment was made in the Onancock Cemetery. Surviving her are her husband, four brothers—James H., Thomas W., William and John E. Shrieves—and three sisters—Mrs. Elizabeth

Diamond Rings

Of perfect quality and elegant set-Our Diamond Department is the most extensive in the South.

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS, Richmond's Leading Jewelers,

Second and Broad Streets. Lewis, Mrs. Salliq Nellson and Mrs.

Cynthia Justis. By the report made at the Eaptist Association, $10,140.85 had been raised by the different boards. For all objects, $40,129.45 had been spent during the year. Rev. R. T. Marsh, of Richmond College, gave an interesting talks. interesting talk on education. the most interesting talks was made by Dr. Livins Lankford, of Norfolk. The association numbers 4,043. Bethel become extinct ere many years have passed. During the last decade their numbers have diminished by 50 and even 60 per cent.

Two causes are assigned to this:

As the Austrian government made it clear a few weeks ago that by direction of Emperor Francis Joseph, the preroyatives of exterritoriality accorded to princes and princesses of meeting will be held at Parksley, Rev. meeting will be held at Parksley. Rev.
J. C. Newman will preach the annual sermon and Dr. A. B. Dunaway the doctrinal sermon. The yacht Ione, of Washington, Captain F. D. Russell in charge, arrived at Wachapreague Friday, having on board Commodore Alvin D. Portner and party, who will spend several days in fishing. Captain John Adams, of Captain John Adams Wachapreague, is acting as guide for the party.

Eighty thousand barrels of Irish po-the street in Salisbury, Md. Her arm and hip were both broken. Mrs. Dick-erson is eighty-five years old, and her condition is serious, though improved.

DELEGATES ELECTED.

Will Represent Smyth at Senatorial and County Conventions.

Marion, Va., August 24.—At a Democratic mass-meeting held here to-day, the following delegates were elected to the senatorial convention, to be held at Bristol on the 30th instant:
North Marion, H. P. Copenhaver, Geo. W. Richardson, John P. Sheffey, R. G. Goolsby, W. A. Scott and W. E. Copen-

W. Richardson, John P. Sheffey, R. G. Goolsby, W. A. Scott and W. E. Copenhaver; South Marion, G. H. Fudge, C. H. Carper, R. M. Copenhaver, W. E. Daniels, E. K. Coyner and J. W. Helton; alternates, G. G. Killinger, J. C. King, E. H. Buchanan, G. C. Umbarger, Wise Wheeler and W. G. Lewis; Atkins, C. P. Atkins, and W. D. Carsell, Grangeler, Atkins and M. D. Cassell; Groseclose George S. Davis; Bonham's, J. M. Lovelace, J. S. Aker, W. L. Hawthorne and St. Clair, A. H. Finks, R. K. Sanders, J. R. Perfater and W. B. Porterfield; Blue Spring, Maurice Hale; alternate, W. P. Horne; Williams, F. J. Ham; alternate, Steve Meek; Holstein Mills, Ed. Dutton; alternate, M. P. Henritzie; St. Clair Rodem, W. J. Dale; alternate St Clair Bottom, W. J. Dale; alternate,

T. C. Sherrill.

The following were elected delegates to a county convention, to be held here September 1, to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates: North Marion, the six named above to the senatorial convention, and S. W. Dickenson, John P. Buchanan, M. H. Richardson, James A. Grosedose, William Meek and C. S. Wassum; South Marion, W. E. Daniels, J. C. King, B. E. Copenhaver, M. Helton, G. H. Fudge, E. K. Covner, W. C. Lewis E. H. Br. E. Copenhaver, M. Helton, G. H. Fudge, E. K. Coyner, W. C. Lewis, E. H. Buchanan, G. C. Umbarger, G. G. Killinger, C. H. Carper, Wise Wheeler; Atkins, M. D. Cassell, V. D. Hoofnagle, W. R. G. Atkins and H. A. Musser; Groseclose, John H. Buchanan, Albert Heldreth; Seven-Mile Ford, J. C. Copenhaver, H. L. Tilson, H. L. Morgan and J. A. Pierce; Bonham's, J. D. Tate, J. A. Eller, J. T. Frazier, Jr., R. W. Scott, J. H. Greever, John L. Gollehon, W. H. Copenhaver, George C. Umbarger; Olympia, J. M. Hubble, R. J. Hays, C. W. Foglesong and W. J. Smith; Chat-W. Foglesong and W. J. Smith; Chatham Hill, J. S. Catron, N. B. Totten, G. S. Ferguson and T. B. Ward; Ellendale, J. R. Maloyd, R. B. Mitchell, L. D. Bu-Matachich was at one time an of-ficer of Austrian cavalry, and a mem-ber of the staff of Princess Louise's former ausband, Prince Philip of Co-and B. F. Clear; Saltville, J. S. Goetchius, C. M. Shannon, Clifford Schreeves, J. T. Fry, Charles Wiley, Charles Ca-hill, H. A. Miller, S. T. Buchanan, Geo. Coleman, A. F. Cahill, George F. Atkins; Blue Spring, Adam Cullop and Emory Keesling; Williams, Samuel Cox and G. L. Pugh; Holstein Mills, M. P. Henritzle and W.-O. Alexander; St. Clair's Bottom, M. Houston and H. C. Cole. Where none is named, each delegate to name his own alternate, in case

> CASTORIA For Infants and Children The Kind You Have Always Bought

he is unable to attend the new invisible double glasses, have no lines or cement, and do not mar good looks; while their comfort and convenience make them daily more popular.

¶ Galeski Kryptoks, like all Galeski

Good for the Eyes The S. GALESKI Optical Co

Main and KODAK 223 E. Broad St. Headquarters

Vacation Shoes in endless variety. Special prices on White Canvas Shoes and Pumps.